EPISCOPALS URGE TOTAL ABSTINENCE

Use of Intoxicating Liquors as Beverage, Especially at Social Functions, Discouraged.

(By Associated Press.)

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 26.—The house of deputies of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church Wednesday adopted a resolution urging that the members of the church be total abstainers from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, especially at social functions. The resolution was introduced by Rev. G. L.

Tucker of Houmala.

The house of deputies also adopted a resolution directing the board of religious education to urge state boards of education to give credit for Bible study in high schools.

Efforts to shorten the Ten Commandments as read in the communion service have been abandoned at the present session of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, leaders in the convocation announced Wednesday. It was asserted that until the next convention in 1919, at least, the decalogue will stand in the prayer book as it is.

Discussion, however, of other phases of the proposed revision of the prayer book, which were set aside in the lower house last week, were resumed Wednesday.

At a joint session of the two houses the domestic mission fields were discussed, missionaries from every section of the country telling their experiences.

GO NO FARTHER

The Evidence is at Your Door.
Bryan proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:
T. M. Warburton, engineer, I. & G. N. R. R., Monroe St., Bryan, says:
"The jarring of the train caused my kidneys to get out of order and I had soreness and a dull ache in the small of my back. The kidney secretions passed irregularly at times. Colds settled on my kidneys, causing my back to ache worse. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon put me in good shape. When I feel any sign of my kidneys getting out of order now, I always use Doan's (Kidney Pills and I never fail to get relief."
Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Warburton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
